Dear Mr Walsh

Kew Residential Services Redevelopment

Thank you for your email of 28 February 2017 updating my Office regarding the resolution from the latest Kew Cottages Annual Public Meeting.

As you are aware, we previously advised that the matters you raised in 2014 would be considered for future activity. Accordingly, we monitored public sector transactions associated with the redevelopment as part of VAGO's financial audit function while Major Projects Victoria was deemed a material component within its then government department.

Our most recent review of the situation since my tenure commenced has determined that we should again monitor transactions associated with the redevelopment as part of our routine annual financial audit. We will also consider your input as part of our annual planning activities.

Please note, if you believe the current situation regarding the Kew Residential Services Redevelopment project has an appearance of corrupt conduct, the Independent Broad-based Anti-corruption Commission (IBAC) is the appropriate body to inform (GPO Box 24234, Melbourne 3001).

Thank you again for your continued interest in the work of this Office.

Yours sincerely

Andrew Greaves
Auditor-General
